(Case Pending in Sixteenth
Circuit Court of the First
Circuit of Panama, Latin
American Wireless, S.A. v.
BellSouth Panama, S.A.,
et al.)

ORDER GRANTING LATIN AMERICAN WIRELESS'S RENEWED MOTION TO COMPEL

Applicant Latin American Wireless, S.A. ("LAW") has moved for an order compelling BellSouth Corporation and BellSouth International ("BellSouth") to produce the documents identified by bates numbers on Exhibit 1 attached to this Order for in camera inspection by this Court or a Magistrate Judge to determine whether the documents are protected by the attorney-client, work product, and/or common interest privileges. BellSouth contends that these documents are protected from discovery because one or more of these privileges apply to each document.

Upon consideration of the record, including written submissions, and arguments by all parties, the Court grants LAW's motion. It is, therefore, ORDERED

1. The issue of whether the documents identified on Exhibit 1 attached to this Order are protected from discovery under one or more of the asserted privileges is hereby referred to the Chief Magistrate Judge to conduct proceedings as necessary to determine such issue and enter a written order setting forth the disposition of such issue.

2. BellSouth and LAW shall evenly divide the costs associated with this in camera inspection, including the costs of translating into English any of the documents identified on Exhibit 1 attached to this Order that are in the Spanish language.

3. BellSouth shall produce to the Chief Magistrate Judge the documents identified on Exhibit 1 attached to this Order, including English translations for the documents written in ~~the~~ Spanish, for an in camera inspection within ten (10) business days from the date of this Order.

SO ORDERED this 28th day of January, 2005.

The Honorable Clarence Cooper
Judge, United States District Court,
